Colours of India

India is itself said as country full of colours. India is known for its diverse culture, tradition that it has been following since ages. India is the only country where more than one religion exist and where 22 languages are spoken and others still are not recognized. Peoples of different religions live together, celebrate each others festivals together. Festivals here to are same only names are different as according to the regional changes, take as Makar Sankranti which is celebrated in Maharashtra, it is celebrated as Lohri in Punjab, Pongal in South India. It is country where rich is getting richer and poor getting poorer day by day.

This is the country where a person will die because of hunger but the idols are been given, worshipped by the 'bhojana's'. This is the country where goddess Saraswati, durga, laxmi are worshipped but girls can't be respected.

But the one thing about India whenever you knock the door of anyone in need there is always a helping hand for you.

Thus it is known all over the world for its diverse culture.

Name of the committee	Cultural Committee and Student Council Committee
Activity Name	Best Out of Waste
Date of activity	20-10-2022
Place of Activity/event	Seminar Hall, 9.30am onwards
	The Best Out Of Waste simply means to make or to create innovative and attractive things from the material we do not use anymore. The competition promoted artistic fervour in our leaders of tomorrow. This shows that the young generation is very much aware about the harmful effects of creating waste and throwing them away without any further use. So they are taking steps to preserve the planet. We hope that the competition has helped in broadening awareness about reuse of items which ordinarily are thought to be as waste material. With a little ingenuity and effort, these can be converted into items of utility and arrest deterioration of the environment. In the process items can be made which are useful in different ways.
